OUR NEW YEAR GREETING

We wish a Happy and a Holy New Year to all our people and beg of Almighty God the most abundant blessings for every family and individual of our congregation.

The Priests and Brothers.

A SPIRITUAL BOUQUET FOR OUR SERVICE MEN

"Go, and do thou in like manner." St. Luke, 10:37

For some the word Ingersoll is but a name; for others it is a loud-mouthed Atheist who spent his days belching out blasphemies against the Supreme Being; for many more it is a dollar watch guaranteed to tick out the time for a year; but for us it means Faith, Hope and Charity; it means Love and Devotion to God and Country; it means neat little homes with patriotic star decked flags draped in the windows; it means the good Catholic men and women, youths, maidens and children of Ingersoll block (the seventeen hundred block) who attended Mass and Received Holy Communion, August 25, 1944, for their dear ones on the fighting front. Ingersoll Block! What an uninspiring name for such excellent Christians and Catholics! Who knows but that God in His Divine Providence has so willed it that some little reparation might be made for the countless curses and blasphemies hurled against Him by that notorious and infamous character "Bob" Ingersoll, the Atheist!

To the Catholics of "Ingersoll Block" we extend our hearty congratulations for the large number who turned out for the Mass and Received Holy Communion; and we thank them for the contribution. Great credit and blessings to the pious souls who were responsible for suggesting this beautiful "Spiritual Bouquet" for the service men of the Ingersoll Block. Those same service men bless and thank you!

Example is more forceful than eloquence. We hope it will prove so in this case; and that other blocks and streets of this parish will imitate this praise-worthy example—will be stimulated to offer a similar bouquet of Masses and Communions for those represented by the "stars" that adorn their homes, and are the glory of their neighbors. Remember them; remember them at least you their relatives and friends.

EIGHTEENTH AND THOMPSON STREETS FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

December 12, 1944

The close of the fifth year of its existence shows the membership in the Credit Union to have increased to more than 400 members, with a total of more than $21,173.00 in shares, nearly $6,000.00 in loans, $4,600.00 in bank, and $8,000.00 in War Bonds.

The Credit Union serves a most useful purpose and saves its members many dollars in interest during a year since in most cases the loans made would have to be obtained in the usual manner from loan companies and at three times the cost. Members are urged to take note of the date for the annual meeting for which postal notices will be mailed. It is to your own interest and the interest of the Credit Union that members attend these annual meetings in order to learn the details of the year's business.

It has been our privilege to meet in the High School Building since the founding of the Credit Union and the value of the co-operation we have had from the Pastors is not measured in dollars and cents but in the spirit of helpfulness and encouragment which has been responsible in great measure for our continued success.

Your attendance at the annual meeting is your opportunity to know first-hand how the business is transacted and the money you have entrusted to the Credit Union is administered for the general good of all the members. Dividends are declared at the annual meeting and you should be present to express your opinion favorably or otherwise and help your officers to carry the work through to increasing service and continued helpfulness.

Last year's annual meeting brought out some forty members. It is our earnest hope that this year we shall see at least 75 percent in attendance and that YOU will be there.

THE GIFTS OF THE MAGI

Long, long ago, in the little town of Bethlehem, a beautiful and mysterious star was to be seen. Its rays were focused on a tiny, miserable cave. The dwelling was surrounded by a miraculous light, and all within and without was beautiful with a sense of heavenly and magnificent loveliness, far beyond the imagination of man. Lovely to look at was the Blessed Mother, tenderly caressing the heavenly Babe, and smiling radiantly at her faithful spouse, St. Joseph. Ah! But what more lovely than this Babe? This Infant wrapped in swaddling clothes? He is Beauty in itself. Surely no earthly babe could compete with or surpass His loveliness.

To this scene of peace and happiness came the Magi, the Wise Men. Here at the foot of the manger they offered to the radiant and smiling Christ-Child, costly gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh—the most cherished of their possessions. The new-born King received them with joy in His Heart. Bowing low they adored the Lord for whom they had sought so long.

No. we too, are in the Christmas season. Let us welcome the Infant Jesus with loving and pure hearts. Let us offer to this Babe not earthly gifts as gold, incense and myrrh, but spiritual gifts of love and prayer, little acts of self-denial. Let our hearts be spiritually enlightened, as we gladly receive the Saviour into our hearts in Holy Communion. During this season, while our minds are filled with loving memories of that first Christmas, and while we can almost hear the blessed angels sing those unforgettable words of the "Gloria in excelsis Deo" and "peace to men of good will" let us resolve to be those men—men, who love and adore the Christ-Child and who willingly offer to Him their love, their prayer and the little everyday acts of penance and sacrifice that come their way. Then we, too, will be "wise men."

We offer traditionally fine service in your home, your church, or our funeral parlors—the cost is always graded to meet your requirements.

TEKAKWITHA CLUB

The Christmas Season is a busy time for the club, also very enjoyable with its special parties and meetings. It sure is a treat to have our former members drop in when they are home on a furlough. Recently a good number have done it, among them Vinc Karkowski, Billy Egan and Jim Daly.

After Christmas we begin work on our play.

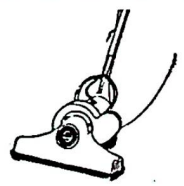

CLOSED DOORS

"There is no room," they said, and closed the door—
Joseph, heavy-hearted, returned once more
To where the patient beast and precious load
Stood waiting in the star-lit, dusty road.

Perhaps there was excuse in that far day—
They knew not of the One they turned away.
Yet WE do cast Him into the outer gloom—
When one small Babe asks for so little room.

—Isabel Coune.

SCHOOL NEWS

This year our Annual Christmas Play was exceptionally successful. It was very gratifying to see the auditorium filled to capacity. As you know, the proceeds of the Play are used to pay the book bill and this year they more than covered it. We are sure all who came enjoyed the show. So we wish to thank all for their cooperation.

Basketball is in full swing. Our team made a fine showing in the Parochial School League. We lost to Cathedral by one point but we live in high hope. The interclass league is going along nicely. The standing of the league is as follows:

	Won	Lost
Seventh Grade	2	0
Eighth Grade	1	1
Fifth Grade	1	1
Sixth Grade	0	2

We have practiced very seriously for the Living Crib and Carol Service which will be held on Sunday, December 31st, at 3.00 P. M. We know our people will enjoy this service.

OUR SODALITY

"Cause of our joy, pray for us." Lit. B. V. M.

On January 2, 1945, the United Sodalities of the Gesu Parish held their annual get-together in the school hall. A goodly number of members were present including Rev. Father Rector, Father Minister, Father Director and Brother Stengel. The high-lights of the meeting: A check of $100.00 sent to Father Baker for the Jesuit Missions; this donation came from the members of the United Sodalities of the Gesu Parish. A Christmas present of $25.00 for Father Director; a Christmas gift of unknown value (at least to this writer) presented to Brother Stengel. The President of the United Sodalities opened the party with a bulwark of cheer, joy and enthusiasm. He gave a "multum in parvo" talk that started things rolling. Then Little Red Riding Hood got into action. She claimed to be lame in one foot and not able to stand on the other; but when her handsome husband swam into ken she could not resist; all her handicaps disappeared, she became as nimble and graceful as a Cinderella and glided over the floor with the touch of a fairy. Seeing that $100.00 check for the missions, Rev. Father Rector becomes mission-minded, mission-conscious. His thoughts travel back to a nippa chapel in far away Mindanao. A Jesuit Father is preaching to a host of natives. In the warmth and enthusiasm of his sermon he fails to see the serpent at his feet. It is a rattle snake all set and poised for the sting of death. A rusty old native in the audience has been watching this dramatic scene. He is getting his shot ready. At the opportune moment he lets go: shoots right into the eye of the rattler a flood of juice crushed from the tobacco leaf. "This is the way we kill 'em here," he cried out. The missionary went on with his sermon as if nothing had taken place. And so did Rev. Father Rector. He told another that took place a little nearer home. A certain priest is riding on a train; he is on his way to Wernersville. To pass the time he lights up his El Producto. There is a lady in the seat opposite him with a small dog in her lap. This smart fresh lass objects to the smoke. She is a person of action. She springs from her seat, dashes across the aisle, snatches the lighted cigar and flings it through the window. A few minutes later the long-suffering Father got his revenge. He grabbed the lady's pretty poodle and let that too wing its way through the open window. To the consternation of both priest and lady, when they arrived at Wernersville, there was the poodle standing on the platform, waiting for them with the El Producto in his teeth and it still smoking. After this Rev. Father sat down.

Father Minister dramatized some of his southern experiences, sang and touched the keys of the piano with a charm and grace that delighted the hearts of all. Father Director of the United Sodalities spoke of some of the customs common in the Philippines: how the Moros hate to swallow their saliva; and so they build their houses with cracks in the floors.

The High School students of the parish and eighth-graders of the Parocial School graced the occasion with their youthful and buoyant appearance not to say anything of the constant streams of melodies that flowed from their artistic spirits. Then too how all our dear Sodalists joined in and poured out their souls in song and cheer! And our faithful, self-sacrificing Brother Fee saw to it that the crowd did not go away hungry. The ice cream and cake was there on time and served up without stint. All in all it was a joyful evening and one to treasure in our memories. Thanks to our zealous president, Mr. Bellwoar, our hard working prefect, Mrs. Kraft and all the other Sodalists who were responsible for making the annual get-together such a delight and joy for us all.

THE LENTEN SEASON

On Wednesday, Ash Wednesday, February 14, 1945 the Holy Season of Lent begins—a season of prayer, fasting and penance. The New England poet—Longfellow—once witnessing the ceremony, and hearing the solemn words:—"Remember man thou art dust, and unto dust thou shalt return" —sought refreshment in his own home and after deep reflection wrote that beautiful stanza—in his "Psalm of Life"—

"Life is real, life is earnest,
And the grave is not its goal.
'Dust thou art—to dust returnest'
Was NOT spoken of the SOUL."

The human soul is immortal—and the Puritanical poet asserted his faith in immortality by those lines. For us the sacramental of the "blessed ashes" is a reminder of the shortness of our earthly career—but devoutly received, a guarantee of eternal existence beyond the grave.

GESU GIRL SCOUTS

In May, 1944 the Girl Scouts (Troop 189) gave an operetta "Golden Days." They were said to be very successful in this work. The congratulations they received from those attending the performance were abundant. These congratulations are always encouraging to those who work hard and persevere to please the audience in their first efforts. The satisfaction of the people whom they tried so hard to please encouraged them to attempt yet another operetta. This year troop 25 is joining troop 189 in presenting Robin Hood.

Our Robin Hood is an original three-act comedy which is very amusing and entertaining. There are some very interesting characters in this play and we are sure our parishioners and friends will enjoy it as much as the one given last year.

Margaret Lightheart,
Girl Scout Scribe, Troop 189.

GESU HOLY NAME SOCIETY

The election of officers was held on January 18th, in the Girl's School Auditorium. For the ensuing year the following officers were elected:

President, James D. Ramp
Vice President, Joseph Monaghan
Secretary, Michael J. Ward
Treasurer, William A. Kohl

The new officers held an executive session with the Spiritual Director, Rev. John P. Smith, S.J., and plans were formulated for a very active and progressive program for the interest and benefits of all members.

A cordial invitation is extended to all the men of our Parish to join the Holy Name Society. A "Get-together Night" has been planned for Thursday evening, March 15th in the Girl's School Auditorium, 17th and Girard Ave., to welcome and receive all men who wish to join the Holy Name Society, and all who desire to renew their membership.

An "All Irish Program" is being arranged and anyone desiring to take part in the songs and dances of "Dear Old Ireland" and willing to offer their talent may contact the Entertainment Chairman, Mr. Philip McCahill, of 1835 West Thompson Street or phone Pop. 3997.

An invitation is extended to the wives and friends of members to come and join in helping to make this "NIGHT IN IRELAND" one long to be remembered by all.

The Spiritual Director.

OUR SEWING CIRCLE

"To dig I am not able; to beg I am ashamed." Luke 16-3

These war days we must do a lot of digging and face many humiliations to keep God's house in order. We want sewing machines! Oh, who will be the honored one—the first to rescue us from this predicament Brother Fee says: "Mend and make do" for the sake of keeping the Church's linens in repair, as also the choir boy and altar boy accessories. Brother Fee and the kind ladies of the sewing circle call out to you: "We will gladly do the sewing and repairing of the altar linens and sacred vestments if you but furnish us with the sewing machines! We know you are only too anxious to have a share in this noble work of repairing the altar linens and vestments all which means so much for our Church functions. And now that you really know our grave need we feel quite confident your response will be prompt and generous.

Perhaps in some quiet corner of your home there is a sewing machine seldom if ever used. What a waste of God's creatures! What wonders this same machine could accomplish for the Church! And how it would be welcomed by the kind Ladies of our Sewing Circle!

Remember we will do the work; yes, and lots of it. If you will but give us the sewing machine. And oh, how we will bless you charitable donors and thank you! And we are sure the Angels and Saints in heaven will bless and honor you too.

OUR GIRL SCOUTS—TROOP 25

Our Girl Scout (Troop 25) gave a demonstration of Girl Scout Meetings at Girl Scout Headquarters for the Neighborhood Chairman Course. It was a fine meeting and everyone was well pleased. We all had a good time, too, and enjoyed going out for a Scout Meeting.

Some of our Girl Scouts helped the American Red Cross in sending out folders for the Red Cross Drive. We were glad to help out the American Red Cross in this way, as this was an opportunity for service.

Last Saturday we visited the Franklin Institute and the Planetarium. It was very instructive and most of us had never been there before. Next month we are going back to the Planetarium to hear the Lecture on Planets, and to finish our tour in the Franklin Institute.

Last week the Girl Scouts went to visit the Free Library of Philadelphia. There we heard many records, some of which were new and others old. We heard records of the "Gypsy Baron" and records of the operetta "Robin Hood."

Our Girls of Troop 25 are joining the Girls of Troop 189 in giving the coming operetta "Robin Hood." We hope our performance on the stage in the operetta will be successful.

JANE MORRIS,
Girl Scout Scribe, Troop 25.

WHAT IS A CREDIT UNION?

A Credit Union is a co-operative Society, organized under the State or Federal Law, within a specific group of people, for the purpose of supplying the members of that group, with a plan of systematic saving, and of making it possible for them to take care of their own credit problems at a legitimate rate.

To become a member, one must first be a member of the group, and must next agree to save at least one unit of $5.00 at the rate of twenty-five cents a week. He or she may save any amount in multiples of twenty-five cents, or buy units of $5.00 each and pay cash for them; but the primary value of the plan is to get each member saving on a regular basis. The money may be withdrawn at any time as from a bank, and is invested in loans exclusively to members for provident purposes at legitimate rates.

CLUB TEK

Swinging along again—the reorganized Tekakwitha Club. And better than ever is what we say. An encouraging feature of the reorganization is the cooperation and interest of the parents. And do not think the enthusiasm of the parents has not added to our own. When you see a newly-covered pool table and cues with tips and a few parents at every meeting ready and anxious to help out and a Ladies' Room that is beginning to look like a Ladies' Room, one cannot help but catch the spark of enthusiasm.

We promise you a dandy St. Patrick and Minstrel Show combination. We are working on it at present. Take our advice and don't fail to see it.

After this performance the Club will be open to receive new members—just now we are too busy to give them the proper guidance.

SCHOOL NEWS

We are breathting easily again—examinations are over and even the report cards have stood the scrutiny of anxious parents. The honor roll is given below.

During the past month to stir up interest in vocations a Sister of the Medical Missions gave a talk to the older girls. Also Brother Paul, S.M., who is a former student of Mother Ursina, spoke to the older boys and girls about his experiences.

Basketball is still supreme in sports. If you have been watching the papers you will have noticed that our school team is doing an excellent job in the Parochial School League. Our class league is also causing quite a stir. The game between the eighth and seventh grades could only be settled by two extra periods.

PRAYER

Just what is prayer? Our Catechism tells us it is the lifting up of our minds and hearts to God to adore Him, to thank Him for His graces and favors and to ask His blessing on ourselves and others. Did you ever stop and think how important prayer is? Man's purpose on this earth is to get to heaven and he can do this only with God's help—which he obtains by prayer.

In these times of war prayer is especially important. It is a mighty weapon which every soldier going into battle needs and every civilian at home must have. Many people ask, "If God is so good why then doesn't He end this war?" These people don't take the time to think just why there is a war going on. Because people didn't bother to pray or think of God. They were too taken up with worldly things. War brings people like this to their senses and makes them realize that there is a God who is almighty and that they, themselves are not as great as they think.

The next time you promise to pray for a boy in the service: Don't forget to do it. Prayer is the weapon which will bring peace and save mankind—"A prayer on the lips can save a ship." Let this be your prayer motto and your greatest weapon against the horrors and sorrows of war.

CLAIRE DALY, Grade Eight.

Holy Name Society

"At the Name of Jesus Every Knee Shall Bend"

It was an edifying and inspiring sight on March 11th, Holy Name Sunday, to see the large body of men who received Holy Communion at the 7.30 Mass. It is worthy to note the splendid increase in numbers, and it is to be hoped that the 2nd Sunday of "May," at the 7.30 Mass, will see both sides of the middle aisle in the church, completely filled, with at least 300 men.

This is the date set for our "annual" Communion Breakfast. It is earnestly hoped that every man in the parish will attend this 7.30 Mass and be seated in the middle aisle, and come to the breakfast.

One of the most "eloquent" preachers of the Jesuit Order, and one known and loved by all here in the Gesu Parish, none other than Rev. Charles Connor, S.J., will deliver the "Holy Name" Breakfast address. Wherever he goes, he leaves a lasting spiritual memory. Therefore, let every man in our beloved Gesu Parish come to the breakfast and give Father Connor a rousing, hearty "welcome."

This Holy Name Sunday in May is also Mother's Day, and will tend to make every good reason why the attendance should be one hundred percent for the occasion.

Any man with musical or dramatic talent, or who knows any member of the Holy Name Society or any member of their families who are willing to offer their talents of any description, will please present his, or their names, to any of the officers or Rev. Father Rector.

Please bring the postal card with you on the second Sunday of each month and hand it to any of the officers in the middle aisle, as this greatly helps to keep our attendance records up-to-date.

Glad to see the increase in attendance at the regular monthly meetings, and look forward to much larger ones, and I'm sure they will be full of interest to all the members.

Last month our president, Mr. James Ramp, appointed delegates to represent our society in the Central Union. The following were delegated:

Anthony Cherricola
John McLaughlin
Frank Seiberlich
Stephen P. Whelan
John Oebbecke
Clement Mahoney

Yours for an active Holy Name Society.

THE SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR.

24-HOUR SERVICE LADY IN ATTENDANCE

JUST FOR A MINUTE

I remember when I was only four,
Mother would bring me 'round to the store,
And just outside of the Church she'd stand,
And "Come in", she'd say, reaching down for my hand

"Just for a minute."

And then when I started going to school,
She'd bring me down every day as a rule,
But first the steps to the Church we'd climb,
And she'd say: "We'll go in, you've always got time,

"Just for a minute."

Then I got real big, I mean seven years old,
And I went by myself, but was always told:
When you're passing the Church, don't forget to call,
And tell Our Lord about lessons and all,

"Just for a minute."

Sometimes I run most of the way,
Or meet some guys and we stop to play,
But I manage to squeeze out time enough
To make the Church where I pant and puff

"Just for a minute."

And now it's sort of a habit I've got,
In the evening, coming from Casey's lot,
Though it takes me out of my way a bit,
To slip into Church with my hat and mit,

"Just for a minute."

But sometimes I see the other fellow
Standing around and I just go yellow.
I pass by the door, but a Voice from within Seems to say, real sad: "So you wouldn't come in"

"Just for a minute."

There are things inside of me, bad and good,
That nobody knows and nobody could
Excepting Our Lord, and I like Him to know,
And He helps, when in for a visit I go,

"Just for a minute."

He finds it lonesome when nobody comes
(There are hours upon hours when nobody comes)
And He's pleased when anyone passing by Stops in (though it's only a little guy)

"Just for a minute."

I know what happens when people die,
But I won't be scared, and I'll tell you why:
When Our Lord is judging my soul, I feel
He'll remember the times I went in to kneel

"Just for a minute."

PRAYER FOR PEACE

Give peace, O Lord, in our days, for there is none other that fighteth for us, but only Thou, our God.

Let there be peace in Thy strength, O Lord.

And plenty in Thy strong places.

Let Us Pray

O God, from Whom proceed all holy desires, all right counsels and just works; grant unto us Thy servants that peace which the world cannot give, that our hearts may be devoted to Thy service, and that, being delivered from the fear of our enemies, we may pass our time in peace under Thy protection. Through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

(A plenary indulgence may be gained under the usual conditions by all those who devoutly recite this prayer daily.)

Immaculate Queen of Peace, pray for us. (Indulgence—300 days.)

PRAYER FOR THOSE IN SERVICE

O God, we beseech Thee, watch over those exposed to the horrors of war and to the spiritual dangers of a soldier's, a sailor's or airman's life. Give them such a strong faith that no human respect may ever lead them to deny it, or fear to practice it. Do Thou by Thy grace, fortify them against the contagion of bad example, that, being preserved from vice, and serving Thee faithfully, they may be ready to meet death wherever it may happen, through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

"I CAN READ ANYTHING"

You bet you can. You've got eyes, an education, an understanding of things. Sure, you can read anything you want, and nobody is going to stop you, because you have free will, you are on your own, the boss of your own life. But here's the rub, fellow, don't forget there are some books, stories and articles that are dangerous for you to read, and if you read them sensing the danger, you offend God, you commit sin. In some cases the sin may be big enough to send you to hell, if you die before getting the chance to repent.

What brings up all this? Some of our recent best sellers, one in particular. A recent novel is selling like mad today. Maybe you got your hands on it, or one like it. So what? Well, listen!

"Not since Manhattan Island was sold for $24.00 has so much dirt cost so little." A current best seller merited this comment of a New York Public Library executive. The same book drew out this comment from a newspaper columnist, a recognized critic, "sinsational," he called it, and because one of Hollywood's biggest producers plans to film this leading novel, the same critic has the "sincere hope that he will burn his fingers to a crisp in the process." Be careful, the devil can be behind a best seller.

About "hot" best sellers, the question always comes up, "Is it on the Index? May I read it Father?" In case you don't know, the Index is a list of books the Catholic Church forbids Her members to read, without permission. In some cases the Index Laws name the book by title and author; in other cases, it merely specifies the subject matter that would make a book or article forbidden. The "sinsational" best seller is not in the Index by name. So then you can read it and books of a similar bawdy tone? Not on your life.

You have another Index that you must contend with. God gave it to you in potency at your birth. It began to operate when you reached the age of reason. You have an Index of Forbidden Books, an Index that the Church did not make, one that no professor made, nor your mother, nor any priest. God gave you a CONSCIENCE, a guide to follow. Sometimes, maybe often, that conscience tells you, "Don't touch this book, it's dangerous to your Faith." At other times conscience will whisper, "Stop, can't you see that this reading matter is whetting your curiosity for things sexual? It's bringing on bad thoughts and desires you can't cope with. You slipped before, remember? and it was in a situation just like this one." When you close your ears to the cry of conscience, you commit sin, because you deliberately step into danger. It's a mortal sin if the danger places you on the doorsteps of serious sin.

So you can't read everything. You cannot even touch the covers of some books, namely, those books you know from more than one reliable source are filled with "sinsational" stuff. There is a sin of curiosity, a sin of snooping where you know you should not snoop. The Catechism answer about the occasion of sin still applies to you, even though you have grown up and have gone to war: "ANY PERSON, PLACE, OR THING, THAT WOULD LEAD ONE INTO SIN MUST BE AVOIDED." Books can be booby traps, and you can turn out to be the boob.

Boob isn't the half of it; you can be a devil. A devil is a tempter, and you sow temptation when you pass along a book filled with dangerous matter on Faith or Morals to Catholic or non-Catholic. If it's your book, magazine (joke, song, or picture, get rid of it. If it belongs to someone else, give it back to its owner with a prayer that he will take it out of circulation. There are devils in top hats and evening clothes.

A CATHOLIC'S SOCIAL CREED

Every American, as an American, looks the same to me, whether Jew or Gentile, Catholic or Protestant, white or black, business man or laborer.

I claim no rights which I would not accord to every fellow-citizen, but I do claim for myself equal rights before the law with all others.

I hold it to be un-Christian and un-American for any group of men or women deliberately to incite public opinion against any other group solely because of race or nationality or creed.

I hold it to be un-Christian and un-American for people to organize politically or otherwise to provoke class against class, or even to feed and nourish prejudices already existent between one group and another.

I hold that both religion and Americanism should be unifying forces through the cultivation of mutual charity as expressed in Holy Scripture and in the motto selected by our nation's founders "E pluribus unum."

I hold that he surrenders both Christian and American principles, who renders either direct or indirect support to foreign "isms," whether they be designed to destroy religion or our Republican form of government.

I hold that they attack the heart of religion and the heart of our body politic, who circulate books, periodicals, leaflets, cartoons, calculated to destroy or even to dull the moral sense of the people.

I believe with David that "unless the Lord guard the city, they watch in vain who guard it"; with Christ that "every Kingdom divided against itself shall be made desolate"; and with George Washington that "reason and experience both forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principles."

For more than a century and a half we have commemorated, on July 4, the liberation of young America from foreign rule, but not in a spirit of animosity. In fact, at present, the flower of our manhood is sacrificing itself to save the same foreign power from subjugation to a brutal military state on Europe's continent—at the risk of losing much of our own independence.

Lest our sacrifice of treasure and of lives will have been in vain, we must learn the lesson which President Lincoln impressed, with such eloquence, on the citizenry of his day, in his memorable Gettysburg address, namely, that only "under God can the nation have a new birth of freedom."

"One of the missionary sisters of the Society of Mary who had spent the greater part of her life in Oceania caring for lepers, once addressed a class of girls in one of our Catholic academies. She told the story of her work, omitting only the ghastliest of its details. Then, boldly, she threw the challenge of her vocation into the minds of her listening audience.

"'One student arose and said, 'Sister, I wouldn't do that work for fifty thousand dollars.'

"Quick as a flash, the Nun replied, 'Neither would I!'"

FORTY-FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT of the
GESU CHURCH DEBT ASSOCIATION

This Association was organized in February, 1900 by the Rev. William F. Clark, S.J. It has for its object the payment of the annual interest on our heavy Church Debt, and the gradual reduction of the principal itself. The good results looked forward to are being gradually accomplished year after year.

During the year March 1, 1944 to February 28, 1945, as appears from our report, the very generous amount of $4,035.35 was contributed which is an evidence of the devotion and generosity of our people, for which we are sincerely grateful.

Our heartfelt thanks are especially due to the Solicitors, who, week after week, cheerfully go their rounds, undaunted either by the inclemency of the weather or the many other inconveniences of their self imposed work of zeal.

We ask for our Solicitors a continuance of good will and generosity on the part of our contributors. We ask also that as many parishioners as possible belong to this Association. The work is the work of God, and God, Who loves the cheerful giver, will not fail to bless and sanctify every home in which they are cordially and cheerfully received.

ALL ABOUT "BENEDICTION"

Non-Catholics who follow our church programs in the papers must often wonder about Benediction. It must seem that whenever we are not having Mass, then we are having Benediction—whatever that is.

Why not drop in sometime and see for yourself? It's a beautiful service. First we have fifteen or twenty candles lighted on the altar and, if possible, a few sprays of flowers. Then the priest, wearing a cope (a heavily ornamented cape), takes the Blessed Sacrament out of the tabernacle, puts it in a monstrance and sets it on a throne for the adoration of the congregation.

That was a pretty big sentence back there, so we had better explain. The Blessed Sacrament is, according to our belief, Jesus Christ, all of Him, body and soul, under the appearance of bread—in this case, a disc of unleavened bread about three inches in diameter. To a Catholic, understand, it is not bread, but Jesus. No Catholic adores bread, for that would be idolatry; a Catholic adores Jesus Christ; so that it can never be said that we are idolators.

The tabernacle is a metal safe, resting in the center of the altar. In this are kept the golden vessels which contain the Blessed Sacrament. These are within the tabernacle all day long, so that members of the congregation can come in at any time and converse with Jesus.

The monstrance is a golden container, used to enshrine the Blessed Sacrament, when it is enthroned before the people. You'll know it as soon as you see it.

Now with the Blessed Sacrament enthroned, the choir or the people sing a hymn of praise while the priest puts incense into the censer (in which there is a live coal). He then swings the censer before the Blessed Sacrament in token of adoration, just as the Jews of the Old Testament used to burn incense before God in the temple ritual.

Another hymn, a second incensing, a Latin prayer sung aloud, and the priest assumes a long silk scarf over his shoulders. Now he approaches the altar, takes the monstrance into his hands, and blesses the people with it.

There is a third hymn of praise and the service is over. But what could be more peaceful than this, the blessing of Jesus Christ, descending on our troubled lives, giving with it a foretaste of joy everlasting!

TEKAKWITHA CLUB

We have been so busy we could not find time to let you know of our activities. We feel exceptionally proud of our tribute to the Mother of God and our own mothers. This was our first attempt at a pageant which proved so successful and was so well received that next year we are planning the life of our Patron, Kateri Tekakwitha.

As you know our parents are helping us in many ways, in fact, our increased activities are possible because of the generosity of our parents. May God bless our interested parents.

We are planning our Summer Program—it should be very interesting—affording all a good time in a Catholic environment.

EVILS OF MIXED MARRIAGES

"The Holy Ghost Will Teach You All Things." John 14/26

Let us pray that the Holy Ghost will enlighten the minds and strengthen the wills of our young people against the evils of mixed marriages. Oh what delusions our young people are under in thinking there is no harm in a mixed marriage! How little they know of the loss of faith, the unhappiness the broken hearts and broken homes due to such marriages!

In business, in society and in the world there is no higher or more insurmountable barrier than the barrier of religion. So is it in marriage. Why close your eyes to it? Why expose yourself to a life of probable misunderstanding, loneliness, open contempt and persecution? If a mixed marriage proves a failure, and a divorce is secured, the Catholic partner goes through life tied to the non-Catholic partner, while the non-Catholic partner goes off gaily and sweetly on another honeymoon and the world gives its gracious smile of approval. Dreadfully unfair—is it not?

The greatest source of fallen-away Catholics is to be found in mixed marriages. In the leakage from the Church nine out of ten cases is traced to mixed marriages. The most terrible book ever written against confession was the work of a man born of a mixed marriage.

"Wives, be subject to your husbands, as it behooveth in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter towards them." Col. ch. 3, ver. 18, 19. Thus does the Holy Ghost speak to us through the mouth of His Apostle.

Seldom if ever are these words of the Holy Ghost fully verified in a mixed marriage. How foolish then to venture on such a union. Marry your own, as is the will of the Church, that the peace, grace and love of the Holy Spirit may ever bind you together closer and closer in soul and body "until death do you part."

PARISH SCHOOL NOTES

Examinations are on our mind. We will try to do our best. We were very happy to participate in the V E Day celebration in the Church. When the sirens sounded we were in the church for the Te Deum and the Rosary. On Sunday evening, the boys and girls of the eighth grade made up the Living Rosary under the direction of Rev. Father Rector.

This year eighty of our little ones made their First Holy Communion. It was a beautiful morning for such a glorious event. Father Rector's words of advice to the children and especially to the parents were timely. He stressed the obligation of parents to do all in their power that these little ones remain pure and innocent as they are today.

Last year so many enjoyed the added touch of devotion to the May Procession in the singing of hymns on the street. This year we will continue this practice. Clare Daley has been chosen for the privilege of crowning the Blessed Mother. Father James Mallon, S.J., will preach.

We are very proud of our Girl Scouts who produced such an elevating show as Robin Hood. We enjoyed every moment of the show. Our Boy Scout Troop is on the road of organization. The first Sunday hike was very pleasant and the weiner jambouree was even more pleasant. We are planning a beautiful investiture ceremony for our Tenderfoots—don't miss it.

Graduation will be held on Sunday, June 10th, but you will hear more about this in the announcements. And now we wish to give you our honor students for the last reports.

THE HOLY GHOST

"Men of Israel hear these words. Jesus of Nazareth was a man approved by God among you by miracles and wonders and signs which God did through Him in the midst of you, as you yourselves know. Him, when delivered up by the settled purpose and foreknowledge of God, as you have crucified and slain by the hands of wicked men. But God has raised Him up, having loosed the sorrows of hell, because it was not possible that He should be held fast by it."

These words of St. Peter, addressed to the hostile people of Jerusalem just 50 days after Our Lord had been crucified on Golgotha, came from a new Peter. The man speaking was not the fearful Peter who had cravenly denied His Saviour before a servant maid; it was the Apostle Peter proclaiming openly and unafraid the teaching of the Risen Saviour.

But what had wrought this change in Peter? The answer is found in the words of Our Lord spoken to the Apostles the night before He died: "But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things and bring to your mind whatever I have said to you." This was Our Lord's pledge to His Apostles to give them the grace and strength to perform the mission for which He had selected them.

Jesus' promise of the Advocate was fulfilled on the First Feast of Pentecost, nine days after Our Lord's Ascension. The account is related in the Acts of the Apostles thus: "And when the days of Pentecost were drawing to a close they were all together in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from Heaven, as of a violent wind coming, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting.

And there appeared to them parted tongues of fire which settled upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in foreign tongues, even as the Holy Spirit prompted them to speak."

The Holy Spirit had descended upon Peter and the other Apostles and filled them with a new life. No longer were they outcasts, afraid of their own shadows; now they were the divinely inspired teachers of the New Law, fortified and strong in the grace of God to whom nothing is impossible. Although Christ had departed from them. He had not left them orphans; His power was still with them through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit.

The mission of the Holy Spirit was clearly brought forth on the first Pentecost, when St. Peter, under the inspiration of the Third Person of the Trinity, "added that day about 3,000 souls" to the Church. The work of the Holy Spirit, thus made manifest for the first time, is to continue for all ages. The Advocate is perpetually teaching, sanctifying, and directing in an invisible manner the Church that Christ founded and sanctifying the members of that Church by means of supernatural grace that He infuses chiefly through the sacraments. His mission was not to cease when the sun descended on the natal day of the Church. It is to endure until the end of time. The Advocate is still sent at the present time in an invisible manner as often as He enters with His sanctifying grace into the souls of men and dwells there as long as the soul is free from grievous sin.

PETITIONS OF ST. AUGUSTINE

"Noverim Me, Noverim Te"

O Lord Jesus, let me know myself,—let me know Thee,
And desire nothing else but Thee.
Let me hate myself and love Thee;
And do all things for the sake of Thee;
Let me humble myself and exalt Thee,
And think of nothing but only of Thee.

Let me die to myself, and live in Thee,
And take whatever happens as coming from Thee,
And ever desire to follow Thee.
Let me flee from myself, and turn to Thee;
That I so may merit to be defended by Thee,
Let me fear for myself, let me fear Thee;
And be amongst those who are chosen by Thee

Let me distrust myself, and trust in Thee,
And ever obey for the love of Thee,
Let me cleave to nothing but only to Thee,
And ever be poor for the sake of Thee.
Look upon me that I may love Thee;
Call me that I may see Thee,
And forever possess Thee. Amen.

CANNON—BOOK SAINT

July the thirty-first is the feast of St. Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Society of Jesus. What we desire to focus attention on in these lines is his conversion. It began with a cannon ball and a good book.

During his convalescence after the seige of Pampeluna where a cannon ball tore open the calf of his left leg and broke the right shin. Ignatius called for some light reading. No light reading was available, so they gave him the lives of Christ and the Saints. These he read with much zest and relish. Here we have the great turning point in the life of Ignatius. His thoughts now veered from earth to heaven; from the things of the world to the things of God. "If others could become Saints why cannot I?"

Once a handsome, young courtier at the palace of Ferdinand, a man of the world, affected and extravagant about his hair and dress, and consumed with the desire of winning earthly glory; but now how changed in soul! How he turns against the world with its riches, honors and glory! Henceforth his one ambition will be "all for the greater glory of God."

According to his autobiography, one night as he lay awake Our Lady with the Holy Child Jesus appeared to him. This vision filled him with surpassing sweetness and with such a loathing for his past sins, and especially for those of the flesh, that every unclean imagination seemed blotted out from his soul, and never again was there the least consent to any carnal thought. See what suffering and spiritual reading wrought in the soul of this great Saint! See the blessings they won for him—even a visit by Our Blessed Lady and the Holy Child Jesus!

Today tens of thousands of our young men are convalescing from the wounds of this war. They are calling to us for some reading matter to take their minds off their pains and worries. Let us not put into their hands the mushy, trashy, fleshly magazines and romances of the times but some good, wholesome, Catholic books and pamphlets that will raise their minds and hearts to God and teach them the tremendous value of suffering in the eyes of our Creator. Who knows but this will be the means God will make use of to raise up from the wounded and maimed of this war other soldier Saints and heroes like St. Ignatius of Loyola! Spiritual reading in the midst of sufferings raised the mind and heart of Ignatius to the things that are above. Surely it can do the same for our convalescing service men. At least give it a try. Cannon balls and good books can, do make Saints.

TO THE SACRED HEART

While the glow of morning brightens in the sky,
Or while sunset glories slowly fade and die,
All the wide world over, like an incense rare,
From the hearts of thousands rises up this prayer:

Sacred Heart of Jesus,
Filled with love for me,
Kindle in my spirit
Truer love for Thee.

Refuge of the sinful, stronghold of the weak,
Comfort of the grieving, light for them that seek:
These Thou art, O Jesus; let me know but part
Of the wondrous graces flowing from Thy Heart.

In the fire of trial so my heart refine,
That it may be pleasing to Thy Heart Divine;
In Thy loving mercy so transform it still,
That its one ambition be to do Thy Will.

—League Hymnal.

THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS IN FAMILIES

The work of the reign of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in families consists, first of all, according to Father Matheo, the great Apostle of this work, in solemnly erecting the picture of the Sacred Heart in a prominent place in the most honorable room of the house. This is a testimony of faith and love that Our Lord desires and that He promised to reward when He said: "I will bless the houses where the image of My Heart will be exposed and specially honored."

Then the solemn Act of Consecration must be made by the head of the family. But is this sufficient? Not at all, because it is not a picture more or less that will exercise enduring influence upon the future of a family. A very touching ceremony may soon be forgotten, and of what use can it be if it does not bear fruit?

The true Social Reign of the Sacred Heart in the family means that the family has chosen Him for Master and Friend; it has opened its doors to Him and has admitted Him to a close intimacy; therefore, it must now live in union with this King of Love whom it has solemnly received. "Mane nobiscum, Domine!" Lord, remain with us, be our Head, our Friend, our Confidant, our Consoler! Thou wilt preside over all, nothing will be done without Thee, our joys, our sorrows—all will be shared with Thee! All this accords with the great desire of our Holy Father, Pius XII.

The last words of the promise of the Sacred Heart, "specially honored," leave no doubt in this regard. It is not sufficient to erect the picture and make the act in order to enjoy the favors which He has obliged Himself to pour upon families which are consecrated to Him, but having received Him as the Master they must love Him more, serve Him better, obey His commands more faithfully and fulfill His desires that He may be pleased to dwell really with them.

Zacheus, the holy Gospel tells us, was not content to receive the Divine Master with honor, but he made sincere promises for the future and began at once to lead a better life. Let all Christian families imitate his example and the Heart of Jesus will say at the ceremony of consecration: "Today has salvation entered this house!"

Parish Notes

FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION

See How Beautifully Cardinal Newman Pictures It.

"Though Mary died as well as others, she died not as others do, for through the merits of her Son, she was saved from disease and death and all that wastes and decays the human frame.

She died, but her death was a mere fact, not an effect; and when it was over, it ceased to be. She died that she might live; she died as a matter of form or observance, in order to fulfill what is called the debt of nature, to submit herself to her condition, to glorify God, to do what her Son did in order to finish her course and to receive her crown.

Her departure made no noise in the world. The Church went about her common duties, preaching, converting, suffering; there were persecutions, fleeing from place to place, martyrs, triumphs; at length the rumor spread abroad that the Mother of God was no longer on earth.

Pilgrims went to and fro; they sought for her relics, but found them not. Her tomb could not be pointed out, or, if it was found in vain, and instead of her pure and fragrant body, there was a growth of lilies from the earth which she had touched.

Then it was said how that when her dissolution was at hand and her soul was to pass in triumph before the judgment-seat of her Son, the apostles were gathered together in the place even in the Holy City, to bear part in the joyful ceremonial; how that they buried her with funeral rites; how that the third day, when they came to the tomb, they found it empty, and angelic choirs were heard singing day and night the glories of their risen Queen.

This much cannot be doubted from the consent of the whole Catholic world and the revelations made to holy souls, that, as is befitting, she is, SOUL AND BODY, with her Son and God in Heaven, and that we are enabled to celebrate not only her death but her Assumption."

OUR DEAR DEPARTED

W. J. Crimbring
Mark Kenna
Harry Ingram
Mary Keogh,

May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

MARY AND THE WOLF

This is the [wolf] mentioned by Our Lord in the Gospel, the [false] prophet in sheep's [clothing], the false teacher, the ravenous wolf [spoken] of ... ent spacing and ... other device and contraption employed by the [devil] to keep children ... this world. This is the wolf hiding in the [pages] of a bad book, a ... behind the wolf hiding behind the charming [exterior] the smart dress ... attractive appearance of a loose, depraved [girl] or woman; the wo... an indecent movie, veiled in paint, powder and [golden] hair, bewitching ... of her glamor, dash, umph and siren voice; the wolf in an obscene ... in an immodest dress, pose, dance, look, gesture, touch; the wolf ... smutty joke, song, story; in an impure thought, word or act. The wolf hi... behind the meekness, kindness, gentleness and harmlessness of a lam... the hypocrite. Take to heart then those words of Our Lord: "Beware ... false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ra... wolves."

When you find yourself bewildered, charmed, weakening under the spell and power of these false prophets, when the wolf within you begins to stir, when buffeted by the stings of temptation, by the pull and drag of passion, by an avalanche of evil thoughts then is the time to cry out to Mary to save you from the wolf, to Mary who crushed the head of the serpent, to Mary, seen by Saint John, "Clothed with the sun, the moon under her feet and a crown of stars on her head, "to Mary who was never deceived by false prophets, never stained by the breath of concupiscence, to Mary conceived without the least blemish of sin and whose soul was ever flooded with God's richest and most abundant graces, to Mary chosen above all other women to be God's Holy Mother: yes, cry out to Mary to whom Saint Bernard addresses these beautiful words so consoling to us sinners: "Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to Thy protection, implored Thy help, and sought Thy intercession, was left unaided."

Be conscious of your weakness; be alert to the dangers that surround you; know the enemies of your soul. You live in a world which Saint John the Evangelist characterized as "the concupiscence of the eye, the lust of the flesh, and the pride of life." Many of our young people are being deceived by the false prophets, the ravenous wolves of this modern age. They are falling a prey to vanity, pride and to the unbridled thirst for pleasure, excitement and independence.

Why is this? They have lost their warm, child-like devotion and love for the Virgin Mother of God. No longer do they belong to her Sodality; no longer do they pray to her, recite the Rosary, call upon her in time of temptation. They tell us there is no time; they can just about squeeze in Sunday Mass.

"There is no time!" They spend hours in the beauty parlor waving, shading and beautifying their hair, powdering the face, painting the lips, polishing and trimming the nails; but they have little or no time to spend on their soul, to meditate on the nails in the hands and feet of Our Saviour, to look at His Sacred Face covered with blood and spittle and that crown of thorns imbedded in His Divine Flesh. They have time to conform to every fad and fashion; time to squander on gossip, on the movies, on dates, on every shower given in the neighborhood but none to give to our Blessed Lady; none to study the beauty of her soul; "My soul doth magnify the Lord;" none to imitate her virtues; none to read and study her life. No true child of Mary will be lost; but are these true children of Mary? Are you surprised that such indifferent, worldly-minded souls yield in time of temptation, sometimes descend into vices which undermine the health of soul and body and strip them of all Christian modesty, refinement and dignity? Are you shocked when the Wolf gets them? "For the bewitching of vanity obscureth good things, and the wandering of concupiscence overturneth the innocent minded." Wis. 4:12.

This month we celebrate the glorious feast of our Lady's Assumption, when her body, free from the corruption of the tomb, and reunited with her soul, was assumed into Heaven. What a propitious day to beg of her favors and graces! To implore her help and protection against the false prophet, against the wolf of sin and temptation which is ready to attack us at the first opportunity! Oh, Mary, Mother of God do keep the Wolf from Thy children!

THE GUIDANCE OF YOUTH

There is no greater privilege than that of working for young souls who are so pleasing to God. One comes to admire their faith, which is child-like without ever being childish. One comes to appreciate their grave and successful struggle for purity. One comes to sense their idealism, which they often take great pains to hide; one comes to realize their heroism, that needs only a small spark of inspiration to awaken them to magnificent deeds.

Youth has been born into an age that he did not make, and he has been nurtured amid the wreckage of standards and conventions that were being broken by other hands. He is puzzled by a world for which he is little responsible; he is troubled by a future that seems to be predetermined by forces which he neither evoked or loosed.

Yet modern youth must be extremely dear to Christ. To modern youth a saintly Pope restored, just in the nick of time, frequent Communion. And today the present Vicar of Christ summons youth to that glorious all-embracing extension of religion that we know as Catholic Action. Christ has been close to the young people of this generation. And He has great work to be done by the young men and young women who see the possibilities of their Faith and its transcendent place in the world of here and now.

The natural adviser and guide of young people is, obviously enough, the PARENT. But for a variety of reasons all of them quite intelligible—the modern parent does not advise and does not guide.

"Go to your father," I always used to say to the boy who came to me for advice.

"Ask your mother about that," I used to say to the girl.

The reply in both cases was an embarrassed look and then, in the great majority of cases, "I never talk to my parents about anything that is really important."

One can hardly put all the blame on the shoulders of the parents. Too many factors have got between them and their children. The modern father is by economic necessity an extremely busy man. With a charming American casualness he has decided that "children should be taken care of by their mother anyhow."

Many an American father wakes up one day to discover that his role in the life of his youngsters has become that of a bogey man. "Just wait till your father comes home; I'll tell him all about this," cries the mother when things get past endurance. And father becomes a monstrous threat of vengeance held over the youngsters' heads. Poor dad!

And the modern mother is almost as busy as the modern father. Yet God surely meant parents to be the guide of youth.

Happy the parent who begins to guide his children as soon as they understand connected words! And happy the children of that rare and splendid parent!

FATHER DANIEL LORD, S.J.

"MY SON—"

By THOMAS H. WILLIAMS

Tonight, my dear son, I hold a little yellow paper in my hands that tells me you have made the supreme sacrifice for our beloved country.

God be with you, son. I know He will guard and keep you for ever and ever. He will never let you know pain or suffering again. He has taken you to Himself in His own good way.

While my heart is heavy tonight, I see through the vale of tears the shining light of your dear face.

I recall your tiny hands, your baby smiles, your laughter and gayety as you grew up from a tiny lad in my arms.

I see your smiling face as you came home with your first suit, your smiling face when you came home to tell me you were the victor in a game of sport, that you won.

I see again your smiling face as you come to tell me of your good marks in school.

I see your fine outstanding manhood blossoming out as you graduated from school.

I see your proud smiles as you brought home your first pay envelope and handed it to me.

Yes, son, I see all these things.

I also see your proud smiles as you came home to me in your uniform of a soldier in the Army of our country.

I can see you standing at the gate as you turned to wave your last goodbye and how grand you felt.

All these things are very vivid to me tonight and they are the priceless treasures that will remain with me throughout the remaining years until we meet again.

I can see your radiant smile looking down from on high to greet me as I approach to meet you in the Eternal Land beyond this mortal world.

My son, I'm glad to have had you and known you, and through my tears tonight, I'll be brave as you would have me be, because it is only a little while and we shall be together again.

Until then, my son, good-night. I gave you to our country and you have served it well and now you have joined your God, for all eternity.

My son, farewell, until we meet again.

THE CATHOLIC SCHOOL

September is here. Johnnie and Mary have arrived at school age. Where shall we send them to begin their preparation for life?

In one point of view—and that is the chief one—there is only one choice. The school should be a CATHOLIC school! Whether it be a parochial school or a private academy, let it by all means be a distinctively Catholic school.

The decrees of the Third Plenary Council are in the nature of a COMMAND. Today there is little or no excuse for sending a child to any but a Catholic school. Catholic parochial schools are equal and often superior to public schools in all secular branches of knowledge. Who can doubt it?

Then too who can plead that they cannot stand the expenses? What expenses? These are one tenth what is spent on "movies," ice-cream cones and base-ball matches.

So parents should make every possible sacrifice to be sure that their children are brought up in the delicious atmosphere of a Catholic school in which religion mingles so beautifully and harmoniously with the secular ingredients of a child's education. His Catholic Faith becomes a second nature to him.

What worldly motive have you for not giving this—the very best education—to your child? Our Divine Lord says; "SEEK YE FIRST THE KINGDOM OF GOD AND HIS JUSTICE AND ALL THESE THINGS WILL BE ADDED UNTO YOU." Christ says that the child's eternal salvation should be the head and front of all deliberation and all effort made in the child's behalf.

Notice what are those other things which are to be added. They are precisely the worldly advantages which the parent seeks when he makes an unwise and un-Catholic choice of a school for his child. They are, so to speak, in the hollow of the Creator's bounteous hand.

Prosperity and happiness are much more the gift of God to us than the gift of man. Can the Almighty God not make and break a prosperous man? So we have the warning that so far as it tends to our essential welfare, prosperity will be meted out by preference to those whose first and formost aim is to seek and possess the Kingdom of GOD.

AT THE CROSSROADS

Will John and Mary continue their schooling? or will they seek a position to help them to fill the family larder? A question of no small moment in the case of some children and one to be decided by the aid of sage counsel as well as by prayer. Filling the family larder is not the only issue involved.

A decision in this matter may be the turn in the road leading either to misery or happiness for the child. The close of his school days marks a new era in the child's life. The critical period of his life was begun, fraught with possibilities of good or of evil for the future. When we look about us and see how many have gone astray and know that their moral declension did not begin during their school days, when they were under the best of influences, but a little later when the note of independence was first heard in their lives—ah! then we see where and when the stress of salutary parental influence should have been felt by the moral waifs.

Do not take lightly or unconcernedly the immediate future of your boy or girl at the close of their school days. Use your influence and authority to create morally healthy conditions in their newer and freer existence.

Good companionship, removal from the gangs, which sooner or later become vicious—an interesting and lucrative position for the boy or girl, a strict practice of religious duties BY BOTH PARENT AND CHILD, on the side of the parent a firm but gentle and affectionate manner of dealing with children who are tending to become intractable—these are the matters of the first importance in the relations of parent and child at this critical period.

SPIRITUAL SECURITY

"Give an account of thy stewardship." "Luke 16, 2. This will be some ordeal unless we are well fortified with spiritual security, rich in good works and spiritual insurance.

We are all interested in social security. We like to make sure of our bread and butter for the future. We know that some day our health and brains are going to give out; that we shall suddenly stop, find ourselves flat tires in this busy, bustling, hustling world. So through insurance the pension, the bonus and other means of saving we provide for the future, make sure we will not be a burden to ourselves and others when poor health and old age steal upon us. This is prudent and praiseworthy. The unjust steward in the Gospel certainly showed deep wisdom and foresight in providing for his own future.

But what about our spiritual security? About our life beyond the grave which will be either a heaven of happiness or a hell of misery? Do we ever give it a thought, prepare, make any provision for it? Do we live here as if we were going to run on forever? Never blow out, never come to a halt, never die? How foolish! After all it is the soul that really counts. "For what doth it profit a man, if he gain the whole world but suffer the loss of his own soul?" Our Lord does not ask us to imitate the dishonesty and fraud of the unjust steward but to look to the future, labor for the salvation of our soul with the cleverness, foresight and wisdom with which he looked to the future and provided for his temporal existence here on earth. We must so use the things of this life that they gain for us an eternal crown. "We brought nothing into this world," says St. Paul, "and certainly we carry nothing out." I Tim. 7. We can call nothing our own except sin. We have but the use of things. "What hast thou that thou hast not received? And if thou hast received, why dost thou glory, as if thou hast not received it?" I Cor. 4-7. This is the grave mistake of many. They glory in their gifts and possessions as if they were the real owners of them; as if they were to keep them forever; as if they had the right to dispose of them in whatever manner they liked, even to abuse them. What a delusion! You hear them say: "This is my life, my money, my body, my wife, I can do with them just as I please." But may they without offending God? You have the right to use God's gifts but not to abuse them.

God gave you a soul that you might give it back to Him adorned with virtues; He gave you a body that you might keep it pure and fit to be His living temple. Are you doing this? Or are you abusing God's gifts, abusing your body, making its members the tool and instruments of sin? Do you feast your eyes on the filthy advertisements and styles that ape the mode peculiar to the woman of the jungle? Do you use your tongue to slander calumniate, backbite your neighbor, to ruin his character? Do you use your hands to steal, to strike your brother, to touch the unclean? And your feet: do they carry you to places where grave sin is sure to follow? Do you use your imagination and memory as a treasure house for evil thoughts? Do you love God with your whole heart, soul, mind, strength as Christ commands? Or are you wasting these noble gifts, wasting your life, your health, strength of soul and body in dissipation, intemperance, unbridled pleasure, in sin and the gratification of unruly passions? If so what an abuse of God's gifts! What an unjust steward you are.

If God has given you a stout pocket-book—are you using it to gain admission to heaven? To make friends with the poor and with Christ who says: "So long as you did it (i.e., a kindness), to one of these My least brethren, you did it unto Me." Matt. 25-40. Do you take to heart the corporal and spiritual works of mercy? Our Lord tells us we shall be judged according to our works of mercy.

The unjust steward was an expert in social security. Our Lord bids us to be experts in spiritual security; to act wisely, prudently, to live good, holy lives; keep our eyes on eternity; to use all the goods of this world, all our gifts of soul and body with such wisdom and foresight that we will be ready at any moment to render an account of our stewardship. "Give an account of thy stewardship."

What faithful stewards! What experts in spiritual security our Eight Jesuit Martyrs of North America! "God bless America!" How fortunate we are to live in the land sanctified by the tears, labors and blood of these heroic saints! Jogues, Brebeuf, Garnier, Daniel, Lalemant, Chabanal, Goupil, Lalande—what Giants of God, what Martyrs of the Faith, what glory they shed upon our country! On the 26th of this month we celebrate the feast of these Jesuit Martyrs. What an inspiration it should be to us! These Heroes of God won the grace of martyrdom and were crowned in heaven as Saints because here on earth they were experts in spiritual security. In this life their eyes were ever fixed on eternity. They spent themselves for God. They adorned themselves with virtue and stored up merit for heaven. They loved and served God with their whole heart, soul, mind and strength. They put God and the salvation of souls above every other business in life. Time, money, health, life, all the things of this world they prized as gifts of God, but loaned to them to use wisely and thus gain an eternal crown for themselves and for countless other souls. How foolish we will be and vain our lives if we fail to do likewise! If we were only as interested in our spiritual security, in the good works which can insure us against eternal loss as we are in our social security what happy, blessed lives we would lead! What Giants of God we too would become! Beg this grace from our Eight Jesuit Martyrs of North America.

JEWISH JOURNAL LAUDS CARDINAL OF BELGIUM

Paris.—Cardinal Van Roey, Archbishop of Malines, is lauded in a bulletin of the "Office Israelite" for his kindness and efforts in behalf of the Jews in Belgium during the occupation.

The Cardinal also received in audience the staff of an organization of former Jewish prisoners, whose chairman, Mr. De Bendere, spoke of the great solicitude shown by His Eminence to the deported Jews and paid homage to "the admirable conduct of the Catholic clergy in Belgium."

The bulletin notes that the Cardinal Van Roey intervened at Rome and at the Belgian Ministry of Justice and "helped directly those who were confined in the Malines Barracks." With his consent, it states, "several religious communities shielded Jews from the Gestapo and sheltered numerous Jewish children."

"His Eminence gave once more proofs of his generous feelings and broad ideas," the bulletin concludes. "His numerous initiatives have secured to him many testimonials of gratitude from Jewish persons and institutions."

THE CHURCH AND TOLERANCE

Does not the claim of the Catholic Church to be the only appointed teacher of God's revelation imply that she must be intolerant toward other religious bodies and their members?

With reference to religious belief, tolerance and intolerance are two words that are frequently misunderstood and very much abused. Tolerance is often made to mean the same as indifference to religious truth or to designate the attitude of those who have no religious convictions whatsoever. If tolerance is taken in this sense, the Church cannot be and does not make any claim to be tolerant. The Catholic Church is keenly alive to her responsibility to safeguard the deposit of religious truth revealed by God. Consequently she can make no compromise with what Christ has committed to her charge. In other words she must be intolerant of error.

When it is a question of the attitude of the Church toward those who are in error, the answer is different. So long as her children are in personal error only, she leaves them to God. The same holds with reference to those outside the Church who hold doctrines which she considers erroneous. A man's conscience is sacred. God alone is the judge of the individual soul. It is quite a different case, however, when those in error attempt to spread and defend their error publicly. Against such a procedure the Church claims the right to defend herself and her children.

A point of practical interest is that concerning the teaching of the Catholic Church on the importance of religious tolerance in a country such as ours where there is such a variation in religious belief. This tolerance does not mean that Catholics hold that one religion is as good as another nor that they approve of indifferentism in religious matters. It does not mean that Catholics have to be tolerant toward error as such. It does mean that Catholics must respect the religious convictions of others. This is based on the command to love our neighbor. Our neighbor is not only the man who agrees with us in religious belief, but all men. We must presuppose that other people are in good faith unless we know they are in bad faith and judgment on this point must as a rule be left to God.

Tolerance therefore is not inconsistent with the firm conviction that one has the truth when involved in that very truth there is the teaching upon which tolerance must be based. The most tolerant of men and women have been the canonized saints. This followed from their profound understanding and practice of the love of God and the neighbor. Without compromising with error, we can and must love those who may be in error. This is not the easiest virtue to practice as is evident from its frequent violation.

A LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

My dear Parishioner:

As was announced last Sunday, our Parish Visitation and Block Collection will begin Monday, October 8th.

It is needless to tell you how important it is in these troublesome times for your Pastor to have a thorough knowledge of the spiritual condition of our parish. You have a great part to play in the success of this visitation and your wholehearted co-operation is earnestly requested. It is very important for me to know the number of souls and the number of families belonging to the parish; also how many children are attending the public elementary and high schools. You should feel free to discuss any particular spiritual difficulties of your family, so that we, your priests, may be able to help you.

During the visitation the Block Collection will be taken up. Please be as generous as possible. The Boys' School is in great need of painting. I think it is unfair to ask our good Sisters to continue to teach in a building in such a condition. The classrooms used by the boys are in bad shape, especially with respect to the lighting. Need I remind you that the expenses for the running of all our parish buildings have increased very considerably without any proportionate increase in the Sunday collections.

May I beg of you not to forget your obligation of contributing to the support of your Church. God will not be outdone in generosity. May He bless you abundantly.

Sincerely yours in the Sacred Heart,

JOHN P. SMITH, S.J.

VOCATIONS

On the Feast of St. Claire, Miss Agnes Mangan of 1819 Wylie Street, entered the Convent of the Poor Clares to devote herself to a life of prayer and penance. To the world at large such an offering is a waste and foolishness but to those who are spiritually minded and are able to penetrate beyond the mere material such an act is an act of heroic love of Christ—its reward exceeding great, the love of Christ Himself.

The Gesu Parish is proud of Agnes and of the three other parishioners who are members of this Community. They surely bring God's blessing upon our parish.

Thomann entered the Convent of the Good Shepherd Sisters at Germantown. Although Virginia is not one of our Parishioners we do feel we have a claim on her. For during the past year Virginia has been an Assistant Scout Leader of one of our Girl Scout Troops. She has also been one of our Promoters of the League of the Sacred Heart.

To Agnes and Virginia from our hearts we wish God's blessing on their undertaking and we promise our prayers.

BOY SCOUTS

As the Church Bulletin goes to press we are awaiting the Solemn Investiture of our Troop No. 326. This will mean that we are formally established as a Boy Scout Troop. Credit is due to the untiring efforts of Mr. Charles O'Connor, Scout Master of the Troop and Mr. William Miller, Assistant Scout Master. We also wish to thank the members of our Troop Committee for their assistance. We hope you attended the Investiture Ceremony and had a good time.

THE ROSARY

The whole of the month of October is consecrated to the Most Holy Rosary. A Plenary Indulgence may be gained on the Feast of the Rosary or on one day during the Octave by those who recite five decades of the Rosary both on the Feast and on each day of the Octave. Conditions; Confession, Communion, a visit to a church and prayer offered there for the intentions of the Pope.

If the Rosary enjoys a unique distinction among the devotions of the faith, it is due to the gracious initiative of Our Blessed Lady herself. She has taken this precious devotion to her heart and has deigned to honor it during many centuries with special marks of her favor. The great interests of the Church, the preservation of European civilization, the welfare of individual souls, have all been inseparably linked to the little chaplet of beads so dearly cherished by all who have any tincture of devotion, from the Sovereign Pontiff down to the humblest of his subjects.

In the thirteenth century the very existence of the Church was threatened in the southern countries of Europe by the Albigensian heresy; the Rosary was the peaceful weapon employed by priests and people alike to destroy the forces of error embattled against the Church of God.

Again, in the sixteenth century, in the reign of Pope Pius V., and again in the eighteenth, under Clement XI., the brilliant victories gained over the infidel Turks, whose success would have meant the enslavement of Christian Europe, have been universally attributed to the Rosary.

Owing to the manifest blessings accruing to the Church as the result of the widespread devotion of the faithful to Our Lady of the Rosary, the zeal manifested by successive Popes in promoting and encouraging the devotion and in adding lustre to the celebration of the Feast is something exceptional in the history of the Papacy.

You are familiar with the story of the apparitions of our Blessed Lady to the child, Bernadette Soubirous, at the Grotto of Lourdes. You recall that while the little peasant girl was telling her beads and reciting her Rosary at the Grotto, Our Blessed Lady, who was appearing to her and who wore a Rosary chaplet at her girdle, was seen to accompany the child in the devotion, passing the beads through her fingers and occasionally moving her lips as in prayer.

Was she really reciting the prayers with the child? Well, as a matter of fact, she recited only the GLORY BE TO THE FATHER, when its turn came. Mary did not recite the HAIL MARY because that prayer is addressed to herself, and if she had recited the OUR FATHER, she would have said inaptly, forgive us our trespasses; but she had never committed trespass of any kind whatever.

Now the point we wish to emphasize is that no stronger recommendation of the devotion could have been given than that the Blessed Mother of God should deign to recite it with one of her clients and subjects in the manner we have described. By this touching act of condescension she gave a signal, as it were, to all her children in the world to fall frequently upon their knees, in imitation of the peasant girl, and petition Mary in the powerful devotion of the ROSARY.

THE CHARITY OF THE LITTLE FLOWER

(The following self-revelation is taken from the beautiful autobiography of St. Teresa.)

A holy religious of the community used formerly to displease me in everything, and the devil certainly mixed himself up in it, for it must have been he who made me see in her so many disagreeable qualities.

Not wishing to yield to the natural antipathy that I felt, I said to myself that charity ought not only to consist in sentiments, but ought to show itself in deeds. THEREFORE, I SET TO WORK TO DO FOR THIS SISTER ALL THAT I WOULD HAVE DONE FOR THE PERSON I MOST LOVED. Each time that I met her, I prayed to God for her, offering to Him all her virtues, and all her merits. I felt that this pleased my Jesus greatly; for there is no artist who does not like to receive praise for his works, and the Divine Artist of souls is glad when one does not stop at the exterior, but penetrates to the secret sanctuary that He has chosen for His dwelling place, and admires the beauty of it.

I did not content myself only by praying much for her who gave me so many battles, BUT I ENDEAVORED TO RENDER HER ALL POSSIBLE SERVICES.

When I was tempted to answer her in a disagreeable manner, I forced myself to give her a pleasant smile, and tried to turn the conversation, for it is said in the "Imitation," "It is more profitable to leave to every one his own way of thinking than to give way to contentious discourses." (ch. xliv).

In the midst of all this, she said to me one day with a radiant air; "My dear sister Teresa of the Child Jesus, would you mind telling me WHAT ATTRACTS YOU SO MUCH TOWARDS ME?

Whenever I meet you, you give me a most gracious smile." AH, THAT WHICH ATTRACTED ME WAS JESUS, HIDDEN IN THE DEPTH OF HER SOUL, JESUS WHO MAKES SWEET EVERYTHING THAT IS MOST BITTER.

MY BEADS

Sweet, blessed beads! I would not part
With one of you for richest gem
That gleams in kingly diadem;
Ye know the history of my heart.

For I have told you every grief
In all the days of many years,
And I have moistened you with tears,
And in your decades found relief.

Ah! time has fled, and friends have failed
And joys have died; but in my needs
Ye were my friends, my blessed beads!
And ye consoled me when I wailed.

For many and many a time, in grief,
My weary fingers wandered round
Thy circled chain, and always found
In some Hail Mary sweet relief.

—FATHER RYAN.

THE INDISPENSABLE

guide us in this vale of tears! Locked up in your gentle soul are forces more far-reaching, penetrating and lasting than any atomic bomb science will ever be able to devise.

On the eleventh day of this month we celebrated the Feast of the Maternity of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The object of this feast is to commemorate the dignity of Mary as Mother of God. Mary is truly the Mother of God, because she is the Mother of Christ, Who in one Person unites the human and the divine nature. This title was solemnly ratified by the Council of Ephesus, June 22, 431. Mary's love for each of us is that of a mother. We are all brothers and sisters with Christ as Our Elder Brother. Since Mary is the Mother of Christ, Our Elder Brother, and since it is through her that we have all received our spiritual life, she must also be our Mother. Mary therefore loves you and me and all men with the love of a mother. The Maternity of Our Blessed Lady teaches us the precious value of motherhood in the eyes of God, fills us with high esteem, respect and reverence for this holy state so often unappreciated, even dishonored by the lovers of this world.

The acid test of any social order is the position in which it places woman. Christ, through the Immaculate Mother of God, lifted woman from a female beast of burden to the dignity of a queen; from the plaything of pagan playboys to the sacredness of noble womanhood, wifehood and motherhood. Now modern pagans come along to drag woman from her noble and exalted position to the moral filth and degradation of pre-Christian times. Modern pagans preach a new pagan gospel, a new mode of life, a new moral standard, a new freedom of the flesh and fleshly desires; freedom of the strongest, natural appetite. Woman in the end pays all the bills with mental, spiritual and physical ills.

Be not deceived by the goose-stepping, the flag-raising, the martial airs of the hour! Dainty, dashy, daring, streamlined Spars, Waves and Wacs will not stem the current of modern paganism, save our Christian civilization, heal all the wounds of the bruised, bleeding, crushed, war-torn peoples of the earth and rescue them from anarchy and chaos. This will be done by the God-fearing, self-sacrificing, home-loving, child-loving, courageous mother to be found among us. Oh, that we could truly appreciate the rich contribution bestowed on Church and State, on God and country by our heroic, unselfish, religious-minded mothers! These are indeed, the true saviours of men, our strongest bulwark against the evils of the day. Holy Mother of God, pray that these true defenders of God and man, these noble mothers so modeled on you may be multiplied along the shores of life even as the grains of sand.

Dignity designates the rank one holds among other beings. How high, noble, wonderful is the dignity of a mother who co-operates with God in the creation, formation and training of man! She rears, fashions and makes him all that he is to be. It is at the mother's knee, in her arms, under the touch of her caress, by her tears and sacrifices that the heart of the child is fashioned, his life and character moulded, that, like the Christ Child, he "grows in wisdom, age and grace before God and man." The mother's warm smile brightens the home; her labors beautifies it; her faith makes it sacred; her charity put heaven in it; her love changes the poorest cottage into a paradise.

A mother lives for the child of her womb and loves that child more than any one else loves him. Surely she has the right to be loved more tenderly than any one else. She loves much more than she is loved by others. Children receive much more love and service than they will ever be able to appreciate and return.

In sacrifice is found a mother's greatness, strength, beauty and joy. She suffers and gives her life for her children. Like the sacrifice of Christ, hers too, is unselfish. The mother's influence, though hidden, is the more powerful; it is like the blood that circulates through the body bestowing life in a divine silence.

Mother! Sweetest word! How dark and uninspiring this world would be without you! Mother possesses a power over us too deep for expression; she exerts a charm and influence over the human heart that will never grow old. We may forget all, but not mother. Her sweet image remains in the heart amidst the greatest ruins. Even when she is gone we fancy we can still see her benign countenance, hear her soft voice, sense her gracious presence at our side and feel the warmth of her love and kindness.

The indispensable! Yes! Both for the home and the country. Science can destroy a hundred thousand men, women and children with a bomb of bursting atoms but it has yet to produce a single life-cell; it cannot give to the nation flesh and blood, bone and sinew, human beings. Mother can. Who then will say she is not indispensable?

France is calling for twelve million babies to save itself from self destruction, from disgraceful oblivion. Behold the fruits of the new pagan gospel, the new freedom of the flesh which scoffed at motherhood, sneered at the laws of God and nature and emptied the nation's baby carriages! The indispensable! France knows now who she is. Would that this country did!

The selfishness, cowardice and worldliness of women inflict on men and nations a physical and moral ruin far more deadly than that of any atomic bomb. Do not be deceived by the dash, allure and fascination of the streamlined morals of this modern age; do not suffer your pagan sisters to blind you to the inspired truth of the Scripture which says: "Thou shalt take the virgin (from the hands of her parents) with the fear of the Lord, moved rather for love of children than for pleasure: that in the seed of Abraham thou mayst obtain a blessing in children." Tobias 6, 22.

Only those among us influenced by modern paganism fail to appreciate the lofty dignity, the glorious privilege and the tremendous value of motherhood in the eyes of God and of man. Remember it was a mother who gave us the Little Flower, whose feast we honor this month; gave us Saint Theresa of Avila, gave us the Baptist, Ignatius, Xavier; gave us all the Confessors, Virgins and Martyrs who are the glory of the Church of God; gave us the Virgin of Virgins, the Holy Mother of God; gave us Jesus, Our Lord and Savior.

If God calls you to co-operate with Him in the creation, formation and training of man and whispers into your soul the glad tidings that you will conceive, bring forth a child, become a mother—esteem it an honor, a great privilege not given to all women and have the faith, love, humility, the courage to speak out like the Virgin Mother of God: "Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it done to me according to Thy word." Luke I, 38.

The Indispensable! First, the Spiritual Mother of all mankind, Mary, the Holy Mother of God; then your mother, my mother and every mother who enriches both Church and State with her God-fearing sons and daughters.

—THOMAS F. GALLAGHER, S.J.

FEASTS OF ALL SAINTS

This famous feast was instituted to be held every year throughout the whole City of ROME, in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, and of all the holy martyrs, by Pope Boniface IV., after he had consecrated to CHRISTIAN worship the TEMPLE called the PANTHEON or TEMPLE OF ALL THE GODS. The pagan temple became a Catholic Church.

The same festival was after kept in different ways in different churches, when Gregory IV, decreed that it should be solemnly observed forever throughout the Universal Church upon the first day of November, IN HONOR OF ALL THE SAINTS.

Listen to St. Bede, the Venerable: "This day we keep, with one great cry of joy, a Feast in memory of all God's holy children;" His children, whose presence is a gladness to heaven; His children whose prayers are a blessing to earth; His children whose victories are a crown to the Holy Church; His ones, whose testifying is the more glorious in honor, as the agony in which it was given was the sterner in intensity, for as the dreader grew the battle, so the grander grew the fighters.

And it is our Mother, the Catholic Church, spread far and wide throughout all this planet, it is she that hath learnt, in Christ Jesus her Head, not to fear shame, nor the cross, nor death, and not by fighting, but by ENDURING, hath breathed into all that noble band who have come up to the bitter starting post the hope of conquest and glory which hath warmed them greatly to begin the race. Truly art thou blessed, O my Mother the Church!

ALL SOULS' DAY

St. Catherine of Genoa tells us that God as it were, flows in upon the Souls in Purgatory in proportion as every hindrance to His entrance is consumed away. And what is the hindrance? It is the rust of sin. The fire consumes the rust, and thus the soul goes on laying itself open to the Divine inflowing.

It is as with a covered object. The covered object cannot respond to the rays of the sun, not because the sun ceases to shine—for it shines without intermission—but because the covering intervenes. Let the covering be destroyed, again the object will be exposed to the sun, and will answer to the rays which beat against it in proportion as the destruction of the covering advances.

Thus the souls are covered by a rust—that is sin—which is gradually consumed away by the fire of Purgatory; the more it is consumed the more they respond to God their true Sun. Their happiness increases as the rust wears off and lays them open to the Divine Ray, and so their happiness grows greater as the impediment grows less, till the time is accomplished.

We can help them so easily by our prayers and especially by having Masses said for the repose of their souls. Have we no relatives and friends who have been kind to us? Then, too, let us come to the rescue of the most abandoned souls who have no one helping them.

OUR ALTAR BOYS

The Altar Boys should remember that November 26 is the Feast of their patron, St. John Berchmans, S.J. All St. John's early years were associated with the faithful serving of Mass. He began at the age of seven, and he kept his grandmother busy waking him every morning in time to set out for the church.

St. John was poor and so at the age of fourteen he was received into the Cathedral School of Malines, as a servant and a student. Here his duties were to wake the smaller boys every morning, to see that they were tidy, to teach them to serve, to accompany them to the Cathedral, and to perform all the offices of a little master of ceremonies.

As a novice of the Society of Jesus in Rome he loved to serve as acolyte in the grand functions of the great Church of the GESU. A Roman gentleman once said to a friend, "Do you know why I come to THIS church? (He meant the Gesu.) IT IS TO SEE THAT YOUNG MAN SERVING MASS! The sight of him is a balm to my soul." This most amiable saint died at the age of twenty-four.

GOD BLESS OUR ALTAR BOYS

It is only fitting that we should take this opportunity to thank the Altar Boys and their Director, Brother Fee, who have given so generously of their time during the past year.

There are many sacrifices connected with the serving of Mass. It comes natural to every one to want to stay in bed in the morning especially in the early hours. However, the sacrifices do not outbalance the merit and grace that come with the serving of Mass..

Of course the mistake is often made of taking things for granted. We see the boys on the altar morning and evening, and it seems only natural that they should be there. We forget, however, that this service, though given generously and joyfully, is made at great sacrifice to the boy. At least we can say, "thank you, and God bless you."

BEAUTY SALON

Personal charm, grace and magnetism is the rage of the age; we see it depicted on the lip, the eye, the face, in the hair and the cut of the dress. How few there are who are not bowing down before the golden calf of beauty! How few not deceived by its false glitter! Millions and millions of dollars are spent each year in the service of this idol. This worship of human beauty is no doubt one of the contributing causes of the loose, easy morals, of the parent and teen-age delinquency so prevalent among us today.

More interest in the beauty of the soul than of the body; more attention to the Divine than the human; more "WISE VIRGINS" and less "FOOLISH ONES"; more straining for the permanent waves which fascinate the angels; for the grace and beauty never to feel the cankerous breath of time; for the worship of the All Beautiful One and not the golden calf; for the worship of God and not man: this is the crying need of the times.

"Seek first the Kingdom of God and His justice." (Matt. 6, 33.) Are we doing this? Or are we thinking first of ourselves and then of God's kingdom? Are we more concerned about the care, beauty and adornment of the body than that of our soul? Are we conforming to the fads and fashions of the hour with a slavishness that blinds us to God's laws and the salvation of our immortal souls? Cosmetics galore you lavish on your body to give it a whiff of fragrance and charm before man: but what about the cosmetics of the soul, good works and the practice of virtue which render it sweet and pleasing in the presence of God?

Not so many, many years ago to locate the beauty salon in a certain vicinity was like looking for a needle in a haystack How times have changed! Now they are almost as common, busy too as were the liquor saloons before the days of prohibition. And why? Well this is an age of tinkling symbol and sounding brass, of shallowness, tinsel, of false standards and false colors, certainly in the world of pulchritude.

No longer may we judge a maiden's health and beauty from the ruddiness of her cheeks; no longer may we rave over her golden tresses of which the angels might well be jealous. No! Paint, powder and peroxide have robbed us of this right. Artificial beauty is the craze of the age; it has swept over the land like an atomic bomb. Who is not infected by it? It has even reached the Mohammedan lass in the depth of Mindanao. Here on the missions I have often been nauseated by a gust of this false pulchritude seeing the heavenly painted, powdered, scented daughters of Mohammed pass by perched on their slow moving carabao. Man loves to improve on nature; this too often is but a sign of his pride, of his weakness too.

We are not criticising the artificial wave, shade and hue when the one making use of them does so for a good reason and with a right motive; for example in an elder sister still scanning sea and land for a suitable husband; but we should not tolerate their use in our young sisters just fresh from grammar school. What a pity to see girls just blossoming into their teens reeking with vanity, lolling around like Cleopatras waiting to be admired, worshipped! To see our tender, pretty, high school girls, aglow with youth and rich in nature's charms and graces, painted, shaded and pencilled beyond recognition!

What a waste of precious time! What a distraction in their studies! What a drain on the family budget! What soft, flabby character training! And perhaps, what a danger to the soul! The Book of Wisdom reminds us that "the bewitching of vanity blinds us to what is good and the wandering of concupiscence overturneth the innocent mind." (Wis. 4, 12.)

To be smart, prim, attractive and somewhat dashy in our personal appearance will find few objectors if any; but extremes must be avoided by all. No one should ever pose as a model of worldliness; dress and beautify oneself just for the sake of vanity, pride, pleasure, selfishness; just for the thrill of being a temptation, an itch of moral danger to one's neighbor. That way of acting might be excusable in a heathen but never in a Christian.

Keep in mind those words in the Book of Proverbs: "Favor is deceitful, and beauty is vain: the woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised." (Prov. 31, 31.) How true this! For only the woman who fears the Lord is really beautiful, a blessing among men; the one who does not fear God is but a plaything of vanity, a scourge to the weak and a strong temptation even to the virtuous.

"And Mary said: My soul doth magnify the Lord." (Luke I, 46.) This is Mary's beauty, the beauty of the soul, the beauty that comes with God's grace. This is the beauty that won for Mary the high honor and privilege to be the Mother of God. This is the beauty that we too must strive for above every other if we are to be honored by God; for all earthly beauty must crumble, be a feast for worms, be swallowed up in the oblivion of the grave. How foolish to dote on, to run after, to worship what even now is fading and soon must come to dust!

BEAUTY SALON! There is a beauty salon which all Catholic men, women, young and old must patronize. Here there are no hopeless cases: no victims of ugliness who cannot be completely cured. If you come with a good share of grace and beauty we will enhance them for you. Yes, we will do a good job on you; no fabulous prices, not even a penny will be asked of you. You will find one or more of our beauty salons in every Catholic church Our beauty artists are quite kind, patient, charitable, skillful, rich in taste and experience. If they do not accomplish wonders with you, turn out a finished work, in all probability, you will be to blame. No recommendation is needed; the only requirement is that patrons be well disposed before approaching us; to such our doors are always open; in fact many of our salons have no doors. Just slip in where you notice the good, old familiar sign: CONFESSIONAL!

The Confessional! Our real beauty salon! Beauty salon of the soul! The haunt of saint and sinner; solace of the weak and tempted; the spot on earth where the lost sheep is found and made white as snow; where Christ and man meet to straighten out the past; where God and sinner become friends; where the angels watch, pray and wait with breathless silence for those saving words: "Ego te absolvo, etc.;" where countless Saints now reigning in heaven have been purged of their faults, enriched with grace and sanctified!

The confessional! Proof of God's love for us! Beauty salon fashioned and sanctioned by Jesus Himself! How old it is and yet new! It came into existence nearly two thousand years ago, the evening of that first Easter Sunday when the Risen Lord said to His Apostles: "Peace be to you! As the Father has sent Me, I also send you. Receive the Holy Spirit; whose sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven them; and whose sins you shall retain, they are retained." (John 20, 21.)

The confessional! Our real beauty salon! The only one where all must be adorned, prepared for heaven, beautified for eternity; the only one where the Holy Spirit touches the soul with His illuminations and inspirations. What a cleansing, polishing, dressing often take place during the few minutes you spend in this beauty salon of the Holy Ghost! But it is a spiritual dressing and beautifying like that which took place in the soul of Peter, of Augustine; like that which worked wonders in the soul of Mary Magdalene. It is a purging from sin with the tears of repentance. The alabaster box of precious ointment used to perfect the work, to anoint the feet of the Divine Master, to win mercy and forgiveness in a heart packed full of love, faith, sorrow and regret for past sins with a firm purpose of sinning no more. "Many sins are forgiven her, because she hath loved much." (Luke 7, 47.)

What ugliness of sin, what scars of wickedness, of injustice, of uncleanness, of malice and hatred vanish from the soul as the priest raises his hand over the penitent and utters these consoling words: "I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen!" But this is not all; now comes the moment when the Angels and Saints are startled, smitten with wonder, breathless with joy witnessing the marvellous work of sanctification, seeing God pour into the soul, now cleansed of sin, His precious gift of sanctifying grace or increase the grace already there. Oh, that we could appreciate this gift of grace! That we possessed but the faintest idea of the richness, beauty and glory it gives to the soul!

Grace is that glorious wedding garment (Matt. 22, 4.) which adorns the sanctified souls on earth and the Blessed in heaven; that magnificent gift of God which renders the soul worthy to dwell among the Saints and Angels in heaven. Saint Bridgit of Sweden tells us in her revelations that, "if a mortal eye could only behold one ray of the Divine Light of Grace, this one ray would make the heart of the beholder burst with pure love of God."

On the first day of November we celebrate the feast of All Saints. These masterpieces of sanctity were moulded in penance, formed and fashioned in the beauty salon of Christ. These Saints came from all strata of society, from all stations in life. They were made from the same dust that we are; lived in the same wicked world; had the same fallen nature; they had to struggle against the same temptations, "the concupiscence of the eye, the lust of the flesh and the pride of life." (John I, 2, 16.) And yet they became glorious Saints. How? By patronizing the real beauty salon, the beauty salon where Christ does the cleaning, the dressing and beautifying. They humbled themselves before man, confessed their sins; now Jesus honors them before His Father in heaven.

"Seek first the Kingdom of God and His justice;" seek God's glory not your own; strive to have all eyes focussed on the Creator and not on His creature, not on yourself. Make your principal business in life the business of salvation. Be more interested in the grooming of your soul than the grooming of your hair, face, and nails. Prize more the wedding garment mentioned in the Gospel above all the fashions, fads and cuts man can design. "My soul doth magnify the Lord." (Luke I. 46.) That was Mary's prayer and ambition; make it yours. "Seek first the Kingdom of God;" the Saints did it, so can we. Like them seek the embellishment of the soul rather than of the body; esteem more the love and friendship of God than the praise and admiration of men; treasure the beauty of grace actual as well as sanctifying grace above all the beauty in this wide world.

Here may my BEAUTY SALON be the confessional that hereafter it may be heaven.

—THOMAS F. GALLAGHER, S.J.

FIVE YEARS TOO LATE

A noted educator had just finished a lecture. Up rose a parent in the audience and asked; "How early can I begin the education of my child?" "When will your child be born?" "Born?" gasped the mother. "Why, he is already five years old!" "My goodness," he cried, "hurry home; you have already lost the BEST FIVE YEARS."

The early years are that important. A child's habits are well formed by the time he goes to school. The parents' knowledge, patience, consistency and example go to shape the child's character: to establish obedience in the child, correct his faults, guide him toward self-control and self-reliance, stimulate his awakening intelligence and most of all—the mother's happy privilege—bring the latent seeds of Divine Grace, the gifts of Faith and of the Holy Ghost, to bud in the child.

The crowning right and duty of parents is to choose the proper school for their children. Catholic parents have the RIGHT under the Constitution and the OBLIGATION imposed by the Church of choosing a Catholic school.

What OBLIGATIONS have parents during the period when school education has begun? Years ago, Father Blakely answered the question with a set of "Rules for Fond Parents." They are good rules, strictly up-to-date. Send your child to school every day and see that he arrives on time.

Although he may be an extraordinary boy, insist that he follow the regular school program. Talk to him about his work at school and let your interest teach him how important it is.

Don't take for granted that the teacher is always wrong! Call at the school and make the acquaintance of the teacher and the authorities. If you permit Johnny to go to the movies often during the week, look for nothing but disaster. And remember that while the school has Johnny about twenty hours a week, you are supposed to have him for the remaining 148.

It is often said that the schools fail in their task of educating youth. What is perhaps not said often enough is that no small part of the failure rests with the PARENTS.

When President of Princeton University, WOODROW WILSON startled a body of alumni by saying: "Some of you write and ask us WHY WE DON'T MAKE MORE OF YOUR BOYS. I will tell you the MAIN reason—because they are YOUR boys."

Wilson's plain-spoken reply was not merely a condemnation, it was a CHALLENGE TO PARENTS to take seriously their responsibilities for the education of their children.

What the CHURCH teaches about these responsibilities is plain. She holds that the EDUCATION of children is as much the end of marriage as the pro-creation of children; that parents are the natural and first teachers of their children. The child is theirs.

THE MASS SERVER

The purple monsignori
Are splendid to behold;
The Bishop in his glory
Goes by in cloth of gold.

And monks there are, and friars,
In robes of black and brown;
And singers from the choirs
In surplice and in gown.

With faithful hearts approving,
The people gathered there
Behold the pageant moving
Into the place of prayer.

But there is one beholder
Sees not the holy men;
She seeks a boy no older
Perhaps than nine or ten.

She is one laddie's mother
And, oh, to watch him pass!
Just him alone—no other—
A server of the Mass.

For her the golden glory
Is singularly dim;
For her no monsignori—
She only looked for him.

For he's her own possession,
And in her loving sight
He is the whole procession,
Her little acolyte.

SIGNS OF VOCATION

A vocation, after all, is the gift of God, and being a gift of God, naturally it falls into the domain of those things that depend on the operation of Divine Grace. We know that a vocation manifests itself interiorly by those mysterious promptings that boys and girls sometimes express by saying, "Well, I just had a feeling that I would like to be a Priest" or, "I would love to be a Sister." They can't exactly explain where the prompting comes from, but they have that inner feeling that is somehow or other telling them that this is the thing they want. In prayer they learn and believe that this is what God wants them to be or do. That may be the interior prompting of Divine Grace.

We also know that vocations are made manifest by signs of the fitness of the individual for a vocation—spiritual fitness, spiritual integrity, spiritual ideals, a desire to do something outstanding for the honor and glory of God or for the welfare of souls; moral fitness—a virtuous character and life, a desire to walk in the way of perfection in the faithful observance of God's commands, a desire at least to aspire to a life better and higher than that of the ordinary layman. The vocation, of course, postulates certain intellectual signs, an evidence at least of a better than average intelligence, especially in these modern days when wits are matched against wits, keenly, sharply and very frequently. There should be also a certain physical presence. I do not mean that the boy has to be a Beau Brummel or a Hollywood idol, but at any rate, he should have a certain degree of physical presentability or presence. He must have health and strength sufficient to face the physical difficulties and hardships that are associated with the routine life, the rather highly pressured life, that the average parish priest in particular has to lead in these modern times in the United States.

The vocation naturally will be sealed by the official call of the Bishop or the superior of a community after due deliberation, conference and consultation, but all these human elements combined with the spiritual and supernatural, form largely the basis upon which Ordinary, superior and faculty build up a final judgment.

May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

ADVENT

The holy season of Advent is a time of preparation for Christmas, as the Old Testament was a preparation for the real ADVENT OF OUR SAVIOUR. This preparation recalls to us two things, a great misfortune and a happiness still greater.

The misfortune was the fall of our first parents. In them all humanity fell, except Our Blessed Lady. Men went daily farther away from God, without grace and without faith, and were plunged into a state of frightful corruption, of sin and of misfortune. The evil was incurable unless God should take pity on man and come to his aid.

And God took pity and came. This is the happiness that ADVENT recalls to our minds. The promised Saviour appeared among His people. By the light of His doctrine He dissipated the darkness of unbelief, by His grace and by His example He overcame the passions of men.

He blotted out sin by the merits of His passion, by His death and resurrection He overcame our death. He established His kingdom in souls by faith, by grace, by love. In the face of the empire of Satan, He has founded the visible Kingdom of His Church which embraces all the nations of the earth, all time and all eternity.

In this Kingdom, freed from the yoke of sin and of the passions, guarded by His law and His power, enriched with the treasures of His graces, guided by obedience to a visible authority, all men are called to serve God in justice, in sanctity, in joy and in peace,—thus to reach the eternal kingdom.

EMBER DAYS

December 19, 21 and 22 are Ember Days, and therefore days of fasting and abstinence. The purpose of these days is to thank God for the gifts of nature, to teach us to use these gifts in moderation, and, out of our abundance, to assist the needy.

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER

Not since the days of the Apostles has there been such a light among the Gentiles as St. Francis Xavier. A brilliant Professor of Philosophy in his early twenties, at the University of Paris, he was, like Saul of Tarsus struck from the horse of his wordly ambitions by the word "what doth it profit a man to gain the whole world?"

Like the blinded Saul in retreat in the house of Judas, he prayed, and Ignatius, like Ananias, ministered to him the Spiritual Exercises and the scales fell from his eyes. FRANCIS ROSE UP CHANGED, the piercing intellect had the new food of the Gospel, the heroic heart had the new life in Christ.

The intellect would later dazzle and confound the bonzes of Japan, the heart would know no rest, it would heave like the restless seas on journeys, it would flutter like the sanctuary lamp at night when the apostle slept with his weary head pillowed on the altar step.

THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

By the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin, we mean that this most favored creature of God, in the first moment of her existence and of the infusion of her soul into her body, was by a special grace and privilege of God, and through the merits of Jesus Christ, preserved from original sin.

This exemption of the Blessed Virgin from the common lot of Adam has been declared an article of faith by the Catholic Church, and therefore must be received as a revealed truth of God.

The close relationship into which the Blessed Virgin was brought, by the mystery of the Incarnation, to the Three Persons of the Ever-blessed Trinity, made it fitting that she should be conceived without stain. Chosen from all eternity to be the Mother of God, she was always, in virtue of the Divine adoption, regarded by the Eternal Father as His own most cherished daughter.

It was therefore becoming for the honor of His Son, that He should bestow special endowments on Mary, and preserve her from every defilement of guilt. But if the Father's choice of Mary to be the mother of His Son prompted Him to honor her as His most cherished daughter, how much more would the Son honor her as His mother?

He who was the only-begotten of the Father, and the source of all holiness and virtue, would certainly choose for His mother one who had always been immaculate. He condescended to become man of her; so that her flesh and blood was His flesh and blood, and, as He could not take to Himself anything that was not holy, her body and soul must have been always pure and holy.

He came to redeem all mankind, but love prompted Him to begin with His mother; and as she is the most exalted of creatures, so He would redeem her in a more perfect and more glorious way than the rest of the human race. Others were redeemed after they had fallen. MARY WAS PRESERVED FROM FALLING.

"THOU ART ALL FAIR, MY LOVE, AND THERE IS NO SPOT IN THEE."

SANTA CLAUS

The name "SANTA CLAUS" is said to be an attempt on the part of little Dutch children to pronounce the name of the great and much loved St. Nicholas, Bishop of Myra in Lycia (A.D. 350). For in the old days St. Nicholas was universally known and invoked in Holland.

The good Bishop was a saint from childhood, and his characteristic virtue was love for the poor and afflicted, for those in toil, for the friendless, and for LITTLE CHILDREN.

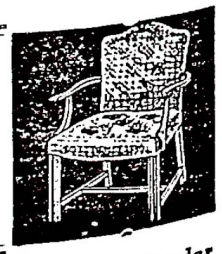

For ages he was said TO BRING GIFTS TO GOOD LITTLE CHILDREN on the eve of his feast; but in the course of time his annual gift bringing was changed to CHRISTMAS EVE.

CHRISTMAS DAY

Impressive is the wording of the Feast in the Roman Martyrology. Here it is:

IN THE YEAR, FROM THE CREATION OF THE WORLD, WHEN IN THE BEGINNING GOD CREATED HEAVEN AND EARTH, FIVE THOUSAND ONE HUNDRED AND NINETY-NINE: FROM THE FLOOD, TWO THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND FIFTY-SEVEN: FROM THE BIRTH OF ABRAHAM, TWO THOUSAND AND FIFTEEN: FROM MOSES AND THE COMING OF THE ISRAELITES OUT OF EGYPT, ONE THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED AND TEN: FROM THE ANOINTING OF KING DAVID, ONE THOUSAND AND THIRTY-TWO: IN THE SIXTY-FIFTH WEEK, ACCORDING TO THE PROPHECY OF DANIEL: IN THE ONE HUNDRED AND NINETY-FOURTH OLYMPIAD: IN THE YEAR SEVEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY-TWO FROM THE FOUNDING OF THE CITY OF ROME: IN THE FORTY-SECOND YEAR OF THE EMPIRE OF OCTAVIAN AUGUSTUS, WHEN THE WHOLE WORLD WAS AT PEACE: IN THE SIXTH AGE OF THE WORLD, JESUS CHRIST, ETERNAL GOD AND SON OF THE ETERNAL FATHER, DESIROUS TO SANCTIFY THE WORLD BY HIS MOST MERCIFUL COMING, HAVING BEEN CONCEIVED OF THE HOLY GHOST, AND NINE MONTHS HAVING ELAPSED SINCE HIS CONCEPTION, IS BORN IN BETHLEHEM OF JUDA, HAVING BECOME MAN OF THE VIRGIN MARY. THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, ACCORDING TO THE FLESH.

THE CHRISTMAS CRIB

Nearly everybody knows that the Christmas Crib and its accessories originated with St. Francis of Assisi. Francis, according to St. Bonaventure, got the Pope's permission to build a stable of rough boards and moss in a pine wood near Greccio, in the valley of Rieti.

In it he put a real manger, in which was laid a figure of the Divine Child, while figures of Joseph and Mary stood near It. A real ox and an ass were tied to a stall outside the stable; inside was erected an altar, at which a solemn Christmas midnight Mass was celebrated, St. Francis serving as deacon, to the great edification of the assembled multitude.

CLOSING OF THE YEAR

The usual solemn exercises for the closing of the year will be held on December 31st. Note that this impressive devotion originated in the CHURCH OF THE GESU IN ROME, and was always attended by the POPE, during the years preceding the loss of the temporal power.

SPIRITUAL ALERTNESS!

Without it we are doomed, choked by the weeds, the cockle sown by the devil among the wheat. "While men were asleep, his enemy came and oversowed cockle among the wheat and went his way." Matt. 13, 25.

Be assured that plenty of cockle is being sowed among the wheat in this modern age. We see it everywhere, in the press, the magazines, the plays, the fashions and advertisements. For many sin has lost its ugliness; it has become almost a virtue. Sin is but a fuller life; self realization; an outlet for pent up passion; an act quite natural and in harmony with poor, weak, human nature. The devil makes use of every art and cult, every fad and ism to ensnare, beguile and ruin souls. Wake up! See the cockle thriving among you! Catholic young men and women, ignoring the laws of God and of His Church, running off to be married before the Protestant minister or the justice of the peace! See how Christian courtship is giving way to pagan courtship! How babies are becoming unpopular, looked upon as dangerous things! How planned parenthood is spreading, taking hold even of our Catholic mothers and fathers!

St. James tells us: "The doers of the word and not hearers only shall be blessed." James 1, 22. To "be doers of the word" we must be spiritually alert. Be alert to the tremendous good you can do for God, the Church and yourselves. Be alert to the siren voices of this pleasure-seeking age that would change you from a messenger of holiness into a messenger of evil; from a lover of Jesus into a slave of Satan. Be alert to the false prophets of the new-paganism who would undermine your Faith and do away with the standards of Christian morality. Be alert to the danger lurking in the indecent literature, the indecent plays and pictorials, in the thinly draped morons, gorgeously displayed and peddled out to the public in the Sunday supplement, the magazines, the movies, the advertisements and fashions of the day.

Be alert to the erroneous ideas about the Church, the religious indifference that are seeping into the minds of some of our Catholics; that one religion is as good as another since they all lead to God; that the good we do is what counts, not the creed we profess; that marriage is the concern of husband and wife and not of the Church.

Be alert to the false standards of morality so characteristic of this age, to the un-Christian slogans, the hatred of enemies, the insidious principles, the evil maxims, the smart, smutty jokes, the loose talk and conduct, the bad example and gross sensuality veneered over with a certain fashionable air of respectability, displayed and paraded with much publicity and held up to us as a model of modern smartness and virtue by the zealots of the new paganism.

These are the insidious methods, the cockle planted by Satan to choke the wheat, to ruin souls, to ensnare the innocent, and to entrap those ignorant of the deceits, the wiles and ways of a wicked world. Without spiritual alertness we will never be able to escape them. For this we have Christ's own words: "Watch and pray lest you enter into temptation."

Remember you carry your precious treasure, your pearl of great price in but a fragile earthen vessel. Be conscious of the dangers and temptations that surround you. This earth is not to be your heaven. It is a place of trial, a valley of tears, a battleground where we must encounter many enemies. Holy Scripture tells us that "we live in a world which is seated in wickedness, a world which is the enemy of man, a world whose teaching is earthly, sensual and devilish." IJo. v. 19; James 3, 15. How can we pass through such a wicked world still in possession of our precious treasure, our pearl of great price unless by prayer, watchfulness and the use of the Sacraments we keep our souls tuned to such a degree of spiritual delicateness that we are ever sensitive to the breath, the touch, the presence of the tempter? That we are ever alert, quick to detect his least movement, his sophistries, his evil suggestions, his flattering offers, his insidious and treacherous designs?

Holy Scripture says: "Those who love the danger shall perish in it." You will be no exception. Take no chances. Do not gamble with the salvation of your soul. Do not sleep while the enemy sows in your soul the cockle that will ruin you for eternity. Keep alert to the snares, the enticements, the seductions of this modern, pleasure-mad world. Be alert to the allure, the fascination, the charm, glamor, dash and umph of those who will rob you of your "pearl of great price," your purity of soul and body. Be like the WISE VIRGINS mentioned in the Gospel; like them be prudent, watchful, prepared at any moment to meet the Bridegroom of your soul. Our Lord knew only too well our weakness and the temptations that would assail us when He said: "Pray without ceasing; Call upon Me, and I will hear you; Watch and pray lest you enter into temptation." Here are your weapons. Wield them. To do so is to be blessed with spiritual alertness.

He who refuses to watch and to pray, to raise his mind and heart to God, to beg for light, grace and strength especially in time of danger and temptation, such a one loves the danger and as Holy Scripture says: "shall perish in it." Such a one sooner or later joins hands with the FOOLISH VIRGINS of this world who squander their time in the night air loitering along the dark avenues of sin until it is too late to meet the Heavenly Bridegroom of their souls.

On Christmas night Christ comes to the shepherds while keeping watch over their flock. So will Christ come to you; if you keep watch over your soul; if you are ever ready to receive Him.
